

Transforming The Workplace Experience

Hi,

I'm Ryan Simonetti, CEO at Convene. We believe that the best way to change the way the world works is by transforming the way businesses work. By partnering with you and the largest landlords in commercial real estate, we're designing and servicing the next generation office building – one that feels more like a full-service, lifestyle hotel.

We look forward to supporting your efforts and growing our businesses together. Thank you for being part of the journey in improving the way the world works.

Warmest Regards,
